GIVING BACK

- Members of our community and RCSD staff joined together this season to give back in multiple ways. Once again the Tommy Apostolos Fund's annual holiday shopping for RCSD students was a huge success with volunteers taking to the aisles of Kohl's in Roseville to select items for children in need. In addition, many of our school sites and the community worked hard to support students through local gift card drives and food donations. Thank you to the Tommy Apostolos Fund and all the volunteers for supporting students when they need it most!
