

WEEKLY COMMUNICATIONS

OCTOBER 15, 2021

1

WHAT'S NEW

- Middle school parents, are you looking for just a little help or extra support for your student? RCSD has partnered with Tutor.com to help provide students with additional support if needed. This resource is a fully online tutoring service and is completely free to our RCSD middle school students. You can get a tutor 24/7 in Math, Science, Social Studies, English, and Foreign Languages. To access this tool, students can navigate to tutor.com/rcsd and log in using their student ID and birthdate (in the form of mm/dd/yyyy). Check it out!
- RCSD has announced the appointment of Amy Banks as the next Associate Superintendent of Business. In her new role, she will oversee the district budget, facilities construction, transportation, and food services. Banks has served in the district office as the Director of Education Service since 2015 and will start her new role on November 30.

2

CELEBRATIONS

- RCSD works hard every day to support every student in every way! This year seven of our schools were recognized for the outstanding work they are doing to support our students through RCSD's Positive Behaviors Intervention and Support program. Congratulations to Crestmont, Junction, Woodbridge, Cirby, Chilton, Eich, and Buljan schools for their great achievement!

3

RCSD CHAMPIONS

- True RCSD champions can be found every day at all our schools! A big RCSD shout out and thanks this week to all our meal duty providers. Did you know that each month these folks serve 271,606 meals to all of our students? With breakfast and lunch now free for all students these individuals have been working even harder than ever before! Next time you see one of them make sure to say THANK YOU!